Boy Scout Troop 336
Del-Mar-Va Council
Chesapeake City, MD

Contact: Katherine Derby, Activities Chair

Trip: Knoebels Amusement Park Family Camping and Recruitment

Date: August 20-22, 2010

Depart: Driving directions will be available for each family on the Troop 336 website. Families will meet Friday night at Knoebels Lake Glory Campground

Return: Decided upon by each family on August 22, 2010

Equipment: Each family will bring its own camping equipment and food for Friday, Saturday (except dinner) and Sunday. Food is available in the amusement park.

Agenda:
Friday evening: Families arrive and set up camp. Families can enjoy themselves this evening at the park.
Saturday: Families will be responsible for their own scouts and children (including scout's friends) during the day at the amusement park. We ask that children not accompanied by parents in the park use the buddy system. Everyone will meet back at the campground at 6:00 PM in order to have dinner and participate in a campfire program.
Sunday: Break camp in the morning and return home at your own pace. Knoebels will allow you to break camp and then keep your vehicle in the Knoebels Amusement Park parking lot to enjoy another day at the park, if you wish. If you want to extend your stay, you can make individual arrangements with the park.

Total Cost: $76.00 per family □ Cash _____ □ Check _____
(2 nights camping @ $38.00 each night per family.)

The following people will be attending this trip from the _____ family: